OFFICE OF PERSONNEL MEMORANDUM NO. 20-22-1

SUBJECT : Military Deferment

REFERENCE: []

1. Requests for draft deferment, cancellation of draft deferment, or Selective Service permission to leave the country prepared under the provisions of [] formerly submitted to the Director of Personnel through Chief, Personnel Operations Division, should now be submitted through Chief, Mobilization and Military Personnel Division, Room 307, South Building.

2. Employees who hold Selective Service designations of I-A (available for military service), I-D (obligated members of reserve components), I-Y (qualified for military service only in time of war or national emergency), IV-A (completed service but under age 35), and IV-F (not qualified for military service) who are assigned to overseas positions or in training preparatory to an overseas assignment, must be provided with a "special" draft deferment through the office of the Director of Selective Service for the duration of their overseas tour to preclude security and cover problems arising from subsequent contacts or action by their Local Board. Upon completion of the overseas tour plus 30 days, the draft deferment will be cancelled and the Selective Service jurisdiction will be transferred to the employee's regular Local Board where he will be subject to normal consideration relative to fulfillment of any outstanding military obligation.
